

Knowledge Engagements

Representative Clients

Readiness assessment and implementation roadmap for transition to electronic health services for 700 practitioners in a multi-disciplinary, multi-cultural context

Curriculum development in recorded information management and education services in knowledge and records management

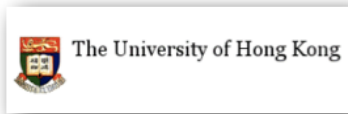

Information Protection Snapshot and Recommendation Report for policy and cultural change

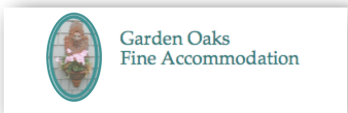

Assessment and advisory consultation to identify inhibitors and enablers, introduce Web 2.0 knowledge sharing potential and risks

Needs analysis; privacy/access compliance review; policy and program development; taxonomy design; project management and executive coaching

Education services in graduate and undergraduate programs in information management disciplines

Knowledge management framework and implementation roadmap; operations and training manual development and implementation

Graduate level course design and development focused on Knowledge Management in Health Care; implementation projected for 2008/2009 cohort

Interactive management level workshop design and delivery in both knowledge and recorded information management specializations